BONAR LAW PUSHES SEA PREFERENTIALS

Mail Subsidy Carries With It Important Advantages for British Islands.

The belief of Bonar Law, British prime minister, in the policy of imperial preference has already been reflected in shipping legislation in connection with the recent renewal, for two years, of the contract between the Union of South Africa and the Castle-Mall Steamship Company, according to Eugenio T. Chamberlain of the transportation division of the Department of Commerce.

This contract has for thirty years provided an annual mail subsidy of $50,000, with the proviso that sailing time between Cape Town and Southampton must not exceed sixteen days five hours. A new section now provides that the steamship line must carry South African beef at a price less than the similar rate for carrying beef from Argentina to England, and the maximum rate shall not exceed three-fourths of a penny per pound. The differential in rates is about 16 per cent between voyages of virtually equal length.

This is also required of the line additional refrigerated space to carry the fruits of South Africa to the United Kingdom at favorable rates, according to a schedule incorporated in the renewal contract.

FURUSETH SAYS CHINESE SUPPLANT OUR SEAMEN

Writes Harding Americans Are Driven From Ships.

Andrew Furuseth, president of the International Seamen's Union, has sent a letter to President Harding declaring that Government-owned passenger and freight ships are being manned by Chinese in ever increasing numbers. Ship owners, he says, expect the American boy to work and sleep with Chinese coolies, and the Americans will not do it.

"Native and naturalized Americans who so gladly responded to the call of the sea when the submarine was created have left the North Atlantic," said Furuseth, "having virtually all been driven into other occupations and the exodus still continues. The inevitable result of such a policy spells failure for America's future upon the sea, as no nation has ever developed as a sea power unless she furnished the seamen from her own population."

WOMAN UNDERGOES 26 BLOOD TRANSFUSIONS

Never Gives Up Hope Until She Dies of Anemia.

Mrs. Adelaide E. Jones, aged 57, who died Wednesday at her summer home at Shelter Island, L. I., underwent twenty-six blood transfusions in the last two years in an effort to prolong her life, according to an announcement last night. Her blood finally became so thin that she died of pernicious anemia. Dr. Irving J. Russell, a physician and surgeon of Shelter Island, who attended Mrs. Jones, said he was present at all two operations, which were performed in Southampton Hospital, said last night that the number of transfusions was remarkable. He never heard of more than twenty-seven for one person he said.

Dr. Russell said that Mrs. Jones showed considerable fortitude and physical endurance and never gave up the hope of living many more years. The transfusions were performed on an average of one a month, most of them in hospitals in this city. She paid from $60 to $100 to each person giving blood.

Acquaintances of Mrs. Jones professed to know little about her when questioned, but said that she was a woman of wealth and prominence who had resided in Manhattan. She lived in seclusion most of the time, they said.

WOMAN AND SON DIE FROM GAS

Dog Also Killed in Kitchen Just Before Thanksgiving Dinner.

Mrs. Margaret Hauf, 26, and her son, Henry, 20, were found dead of asphyxiation in the kitchen of their home at 30 Carmine street yesterday. Mrs. Ella Amato, who lives on the same floor, had called them to a Thanksgiving dinner, but when she got no response she went to the fire escape and looking through the kitchen window saw them lying on the floor. Their dog, Nellie, also was dead, her nose pressed against a crack in the door. Gas was escaping from a defective range.

Henry Hart was a professional ball player in minor leagues.
